Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Challenge of the Present Crisis I did not intend to write an essay on War, and I am glad to see that I have avoided doing so. Many informing treatises are throwing light on every aspect of the great struggle, and it is not likely that there will be lack of more. But when all the special treatises have had their say, an inner problem still remains unsolved. In what mood shall a Christian, or for that matter an idealist of any kind, face the catastrophe? With what considerations and insights can he support his faith and hope? And how can he harmonize his ideals with his necessities of action in a time of war? The morale of our people critically depends upon their answer to such questions. If one attempts to write upon the War with these needs in mind, the result cannot be an impersonal treatise.
