Hamaca Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 90 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.2in. A mix of fiction, non-fiction, poetry and memoir, this book will inspire anyone who has ever dreamed of picking up and moving out of their native country for a new adventure. The authors voices are wide-ranging, but have in common the fact that they are struck by the relaxed and gentle quality of their new lives in Yucatán. Many have been south of the border for years, but still appear to be looking around in awe at the community in which they now find themselves. This is the Merida Writers Groups first anthology, reflecting on their lives after moving from the U. S. or Canada to Yucatan, Mexico. The Merida Writers Group has put in words their reflections on life in this very special city, a place of beauty, wonder, and even magic. Our Yucatan is a delight! From baseball to hurricane, the Writers Group has put together a collection of insightful anecdotes and delightful fiction, giving an inside view into life in the Yucatan. Read Our Yucatan and chuckle, smile, shed a tear, and learn a little. The Writers Group is in the vanguard of Meridas burgeoning community of writers. Grant Spradling, author of Maya Sacrifice An engaging blend of Yucatan tales! At times melancholy, at times comical, they are certainly at all times stories told straight from the heart. Jeanine Kitchel, author of Maya 2012 Revealed, Demystifying the Prophecy, and Where the Sky is Born: Living in the Land of the Maya. Chapters: Midlife Meatloaf: A midlife crisis leads to a treasure hunt behind the Merida English Library, by Lorraine Baillie Bowie Imprecision, and three other works of poetry reflecting everyday life in Merida, by Marianne Kehoe The Maya Queen, falling in love with...
