Not illustrated. 1889 Excerpt: .and the fact is indisputable that their butterine is subjected to less handling and is absolutely cleaner than nine-tenths of the dairy butter that comes to market. The tubs, the tables and all woodwork that come in contact with the butterine are kept in a state of the most perfect cleanliness, the oil used is only the purest beef oil, the cream and natural butter-milk used in connection with the oil are of the best quality, and the minor ingredients, salt, etc., are of the choicest grades. The product is as perfect in flavor and sweetness as the finest gilt-edge butter, yet it is sold to consumers at one-half the price, and if the two are placed side by side and tested no one could tell which was the butterine, except by analysis. The proprietors of the business are Messrs. Frank M. Mathewson, Theodore Oakley and...
