Excerpt: . . . 7 simply eliminating it or taking 600 million out of the people development program and out of the community development. I think we need a vigorous conversation about HOPE VI and I will be asking you some questions about it. It is a program that needs to be reformed or if it is not going to stay as HOPE VI, we need to then think about how else we can create hope. Remember, it is not about housing, it is about opportunity. The other issue that I am concerned about is brownfields. Brownfields were eliminated from the budget request last year. With brownfields, the cleanup responsibility lies with EPA, but part of the economic development responsibility lies with HUD. In my own home State of Maryland and in the Baltimore metropolitan area, a study done for the Maryland Port Authority showed that we have 3, 000 acres of brownfields in and around the Baltimore waterfront, in Baltimore City and east Baltimore County. What a cornucopia of opportunity to turn brownfields into green fields, not only from the environmental standpoint, but a tremendous opportunity to create new jobs, new places for work, and even new housing. Let us take a look at these brownfields and let us work with Administrator Whitman to look at not only large communities, but in others that we could do this. Third, we need to look at the funding and attitudes related to housing for the elderly. Most of the housing for the elderly was built in the 1970 s and 1980 s. It is old. We have many, many units that were built in the 1960...
