Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Progress of Mrs. Alexander: A Comedy in 3 Acts Most college organizations devoted to the drama confine their efforts solely to the acting of plays which either are already well-known or else, as works by authors of substantial reputation, carry with them a fair promise of success. The Harvard Dramatic Club, however, was founded with the unique idea of encouraging play-writing as well as acting. For this reason two competitions, open to all undergraduates or recent graduates of Harvard or Radcliffe, are announced each year. With one exception, all the plays in the four productions so far given by the club have been chosen from these competitions. The Promised Land, by A. Davis 07, the first venture of the club, although a large and difficult production, met immediate success in the fall of 1908. In the following spring the Graduate Advisory Committee, consisting of Winthrop Ames 95, director of the New Theatre in New York; Professor G. P. Baker 87, and H. T. Parker, dramatic critic of the Boston Transcript, decided upon the presentation...
