ANATOMIE DESCRIPTIVE (2)

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 92 pages. LC Number: KF27 . F627 2007n OCLC Number: (OCoLC)191799911 Subject: Africa -- Strategic aspects. Excerpt: . . . 11 CJTF - HOA in which the military builds or refurbishes school buildings and USAID furnishes school books and supports teacher training. This long record of collaboration with the military across countries and across contexts suggests that the cooperative relationship that is envisioned by AFRICOM is not entirely new. USAID has learned that the military's logistical capabilities can be invaluable assets in emergency humanitarian assistance. Likewise, we have demonstrated that USAID's unique skills in addressing a range of essential human needs for civilian populations in both peace and war is of substantial strategic benefit to the foreign policy of the United States. Thus, USAID's coordination with the military's civic action programs can lead to important synergies of effort, resources and expertise for the benefit of our beneficiaries and in support of our interests. Yet experience has also taught us of the importance of maintaining the essential humanitarian and development character of USAID when we work with the military. While we represent the same government as our military colleagues, the methods by which we work and the sectors in which we work are quite different. Preserving the development and humanitarian role of USAID, even as we work closely with the military in the field, is vital to the successful operation of our programs, to the preservation of our partnerships with non-governmental organizations, and to our credibility in the eyes of our beneficiaries. In large part this will be ensured by AFRICOM's focus on the security sector, while supporting USAID in mutually agreed upon activities. We remain ever mindful of our humanitarian principles and development principles as we contribute to the...
