

Human Behavior and the Social Environment: Macro Level: Groups, Communities, and Organizations

By Katherine van Wormer

Oxford University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 328 pages. Dimensions: 9.8in. x 6.9in. x 0.7in. Each person is a unique individual, yet we all are also defined by groups - those we belong to and those we are excluded from, voluntarily or involuntarily. In the second half of the Human Behavior and the Social Environment sequence, Katherine van Wormer, Fred Besthorn, and Thomas Keefe take a stimulating new approach to exploring this macro view of humanity and demonstrating how each component of society, from the single person to the sprawling organization, is part of a dynamic whole. Their collaboration has produced a remarkable volume that will help students recognize and consider interactions between and among individuals and social systems, and thereby develop into truly effective social workers. Outlines theoretical concepts and practice implications in each chapter Highlights the importance of the natural environment and ecology - the community of the earth - to human and group behavior Sets forth a refined understanding of the role of spirituality - the community of faith - in peoples lives Focuses on evidence-based theory and research Teaches from a global, cross-cultural perspective, highlighting themes of empowerment and social justice Features dynamic readings and personal...
