By Carl Weinberg

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .ADAM TRUBACK, a burnt-out high-school English teacher has a recurring dream. In it, he meets a beautiful woman at a 1950 s inner-city bar. Then on one cold December afternoon in 2012 he disappears from his back yard in suburban Philadelphia, and reappears on the side of Route 66, forty miles out of Amarillo, circa 1950, 110 degrees. After a period of panic and confusion, and discarding his winter clothing, he sits contemplating his options when along comes a flashy Buick driven by a young man, BRAD, who picks him up. They become quick friends on a Route 66 road trip from Amarillo to Los Angeles. On a stop in Las Vegas, Adam draws on his knowledge of the future to win enough money to get by. In Vegas, he also meets ANNABELLE, the girl from his recurring dream, and convinces her to accompany him and Brad to L.A. In Venice, California, the home of the West Coast Beatnik culture, Adam lives out his fantasy of a stimulating existence with Annabelle. During the day in Venice, while Anabelle...
