Excerpt: . . . 11 And last but not least is Ms. Doris Voitier, who was appointed superintendent of St. Barnard Parish Public Schools on August 10, 2004. She became superintendent after a 33-year career in the St. Bernard school system following experiences as a high school math-ematics teacher, supervisor of accounting and instruction, associate superintendent for finance and support services, and assistant su-perintendent. As superintendent, she is spearheading efforts to rebuild the school district in the wake of Hurricane Katrina, which has de-stroyed each of the systems 20 buildings and schools. And we appreciate you being here too, Ms. Voitier. Let me just explain the sequence of events here. We will go in the same order which you were introduced, from my left to my right. And each of you has 5 minutes. The light system is green for 4 minutes, yellow for 1 minute, and then red thereafter. So if you see red, you want to sort of think about wrapping up if you could. And then each member up here - and there is a lot of interest in this hearing - will have 5 minutes to ask questions. I will probably have to repeat this, but just remember, not all of you can answer every question in a 5-minute period to give the members a chance to say what they want to say and answer questions. So as you get to the Q and A period - generally, we...
