Ibid. 382. 242 FAILURE OF CONCILIATION. Buffered because four or five theologians checked the triumphal progress of the conqueror of Pavia. What! said they to him, a few days sufficed to overthrow the King of France and the pope, and you cannot succeed with these gospellers! They determined on breaking off the conferences. Eck, irritated because neither stratagem nor terror had been effectual, could not master himself in the presence of the Protestants. Ah! exclaimed he, at the moment of separation, why did not the emperor, when he entered Germany, make a general inquest about the Lutherans He would then have heard arrogant answers, witnessed monsters of heresy, and his zeal suddenly taking fire, would have led him to destroy all this faction But now Brucks mild language and Melancthons concessions prevent him from getting so angry as the cause requires. Eck said these words with a smile; but they expressed all his thoughts. The colloquy terminated on the 30th August. The Romish states made their report to...
